

Route descriptions to Fundación Tres Culturas del Mediterráneo (Three cultures of the Mediterranean)

Calle Max Planck nº2, Isla de la Cartuja, 41092 Sevilla

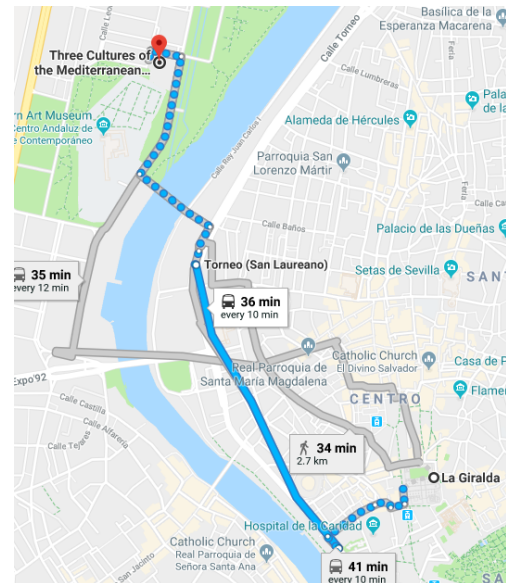

BUS: You could take one of the circular bus lines C1 that goes clockwise around the city or C2 that goes the other way and stops at America Vespucio (Helipuerto). From there it's another five minutes walking to the venue Tres Culturas.

From the bus station (Plaza de Armas) you cross Puente del Cachorro and take the C1 at Jimenez de Quesada.

From Caixa Forum you take the C1 at Inca Garcilaso

From La Giralda you take the C3 at Paseo Colon. Get off at Torneo and cross the smaller bridge Pasarela de la Cartuja to the other side of the river.

Quite often, especially from the old town, walking is faster.

Taxi: Taxis in Seville are easily recognizable: they are white with a yellow diagonal stripe on the side (the green light indicates that the taxi is available).
