Third Plenary Meeting - Defining a monitoring and evaluation system for PRI

Date: 26 October 2022 | Place: Online (Webex)

Context

The aim of the workshop is to learn collectively on the best practices on monitoring and evaluation (M&E) of innovation policy and to share PRI Pilot's participants experiences. Two real cases of M&E system will be presented to facilitate the discussion and to collectively look for practical solutions for improving existing M&E systems. Participants are encouraged to go beyond current practices and share their visions to move the M&E system one-step further. Participants will work together in small groups with the support of JRC policy analysts and experts.
